Attendees Background

Moses Kritz is a commercial fisher from Togiak, Alaska and has served as a Director of the BBNC Board from 1978 to 1996 and 2005 to present. Moses is a tribal member and serves as President of the Traditional Council of Togiak. He is also a board member of Bristol Bay Economic Development Corporation and Togiak Seafoods.

Joseph L. Chythlook is a commercial fisher from Dillingham, Alaska and has been a BBNC Director since 1990. He serves as Chair of the BBNC Board and is also a member of Aleknagik Traditional Council. Joe also serves as a member of the Alaska Federation of Natives and Alaska Village Initiatives (NOTE: Bristol Bay's shareholders include Natives who live in or came from the Bristol Bay region, including Aleuts, Yupik Eskimos and Athabascans).

Jason Metrokin is the President and CEO of BBNC. Jason is part Aleut and previously served as a vice president of development at the First Alaskans Institute and he worked as an assistant vice president at the National Bank of Alaska. He is a founding member of the Alaska Native Professional Association

Shoren Brown is the Bristol Bay Campaign Director for Trout Unlimited. He is the former Campaign Director for Sportsmen for Responsible Energy, an alliance of hunting and fishing organizations working to reform irresponsible energy development on public lands. He has been involved in issue and political campaigns for over a decade.

L. Tiel Smith was raised in Dillingham, Alaska and is a lifelong commercial fisherman in Bristol Bay. He is a Bristol Bay Native Corporation and Choggiung Shareholder and a member of Curyung Tribal Council.

Peter Van Tuyn is an attorney with Besseney & Van Tuyn, L.L.C., Anchorage, Alaska, and is outside counsel to Bristol Bay Native Corporation

Wayne Nastri is a Senior Vice President of mCapitol Management. He previously served as the Regional Administrator for USEPA Region 9 and as the Governor's appointee to the South Coast Air Quality Management District where he chaired the Technology Committee.
